SAVED BY HER CORSET.

Steel Stay Turns Bullet Fired by Despondent Husband.
Muncie, Ind., July 25.—A corset stay saved the life of Mrs. Frank Williams yesterday when her husband, despondent because he had been out of employment for months, shot three times at her and then ended his own life. One of the bullets struck Mrs. Williams above the heart, but the steel stay deflected it, and she only suffered a slight flesh wound.

OKLAHOMA IN TROUBLE.

It is Tangled up in Its New Constitution.

Washington, July 25.—It's rather hard luck, but the new State of Oklahoma, which only a few days ago was exhibiting itself at Denver, with all the pride consistent with an overweening modesty, as the very latest and best product of conservative statecraft, has got tangled up in its new constitution and doesn't seem to be in a fair way to get untangled. Oklahoma used to be very sure that if it was running its own business it would do it lots better than Washington did. So when the new constitution was made it contained provision that no corporation should exercise the right of eminent domain till it should have demonstrated itself with the State. This provision is making the trouble.

The Prairie Oil & Gas Company, limb of the Standard, proposed to build certain pipe lines, including one to the Gulf of Mexico and another to Canon, Ok., which were absolutely necessary if the huge oil production were to be marketed. The Prairie company buys its right of way, and secures permission of county and town authorities to cross highways; wherefore it claims not to exercise any right of eminent domain. But the attorney general of the State, Charles West declines to accept this view; he says the pipe line is a common carrier, and does exercise eminent domain; so he has strated suit to enjoin the company from constructing its lines until it shall have taken out articles of incorporation in Oklahoma subjecting itself to all the laws of the new State. The Prairie has firmly declined to do this.

Governor Haskell takes the company's side, and insists that it be allowed to go ahead and build on its own terms. The attorney general is flat about it. He will not consent. The governor replies that it isn't the business of the attorney general to go around enjoining things on his own hook; he is simply the paid legal adviser of the State, and has no business doing such things unless he is asked to do so by the governor.

The clash has developed serious menace to the peace of the new State government. There has been information of effort to remove the attorney general, and he has shown no disposition whatever to take flight. Meanwhile, about 200,000 barrels daily production of oil is unable to reach market and the whole industry is suffering. It is declared unless the tangle is soon straightened out the situation will cost the Democrats, who are in complete control of Oklahoma, thousands of votes among the oil interests at the coming election. Republicans are watching the situation, on this account, with the utmost interest.

ORDINATION AT BRATTLEBORO.

An important feature of the annual meeting of the Worcester district of the New York conference of the Swedish Evangelical Lutheran churches of America, which began in Brattleboro Wednesday night, was the installation of Rev. S. E. Hammarlof as pastor of the Lutheran church of Brattleboro. Since 1902 this church, which is prosperous, has been without an ordained pastor, the pulpit being supplied largely by students. The services last night were attended by many visiting pastors and by a large proportion of the Swedish population of Brattleboro. Rev. Dr. G. Nelsenius of Brooklyn, assisted by Rev. F. A. Engstrand and Rev. J. A. Ekstrom of Worcester, Rev. A. M. Groom of Orange, Rev. A. P. Bjorkman of Fitchburg, Rev. C. J. A. Holmgren of Gardner and Rev. A. J. Lawson of Springfield Mass., and Rev. F. A. Patterson of Proctor, Vt. The ceremony was followed by a sermon by Rev. J. A. Ekstrom. Prof. Carl Strand of Brattleboro, Ill., son of John Strand of Brattleboro is the soloist of the conference. The morning session today will be devoted to a business meeting for the discussion of mission work in the different fields, and tonight there will be sermons by Rev. F. A. Peterson and Rev. C. J. A. Holmgren, which will close the conference.

Submarine Work in Burlington Bay.

Sixty men are employed this season on submarine work in Burlington bay and Winooki river under the direction of James S. Cushman of Boston. The list includes three expert divers and other workmen experienced in this kind of work, and many ordinary laborers. Besides the extensive repairs in progress to Burlington breakwater the big dam at Winooki for the American Woolen Co. and the dam at the gorge for the Burlington Light & Power Co. are undergoing repairs. Tons of concrete are used in this work and operations particularly at Winooki are watched daily by hundreds of spectators.

Repairs on the breakwater it is expected will be practically completed this season.

Nothing of importance has been done to the Winooki dam for many years and the structure leaks badly. The low water in the river enables the work here to be carried on with dispatch.

Governor at Mormon Monument.

Governor Proctor and his staff, who were spending a few days at Lake Mitchell last week, visited the Joseph Smith monument in Royton and were guests of Junius F. Wells, who conducted the visitors about the premises, telling the story of the old hearthstone, the only relic of the prophet's birthplace preserved. After this, the party were seated in the large living room and entertained by music for an hour. Miss V. L. Cook, pianist, and Miss Florence Jefferson, contralto, were the soloists. These young Mormon students of the Boston Conservatory of Music greatly surprised and delighted the company. A delicious collation was served. The visiting company comprised Governor and Mrs. Proctor, Judge Advocate General and Mrs. Williams, Surgeon General and Mrs. Kinsley, Aide de Camp and Mrs. Wright, Inspector General and Mrs. Gibson, Aide-de-Camp and Mrs. Woolson, Secretary and Mrs. Benjamin Williams, Jr., and Mortimer R. Proctor.

WAR OF GAMBLERS CONTINUES

Chicago, July 25.—Bomb No. 18 in the gambler's vendetta series was exploded last night in the rear of James J. Corbett's saloon, 236 State street. The bomb was placed under the saloon in the rear of the basement, which is used as a store room. Planks two inches thick were torn from the walls and several hundred dollars' worth of bottled goods that had been stored in the basement were broken. Two rooms of the hotel are said to have been used for a poker game, and the bomb evidently was directed toward the keepers of the gambling house as Corbett is not interested in the hotel. The explosion was the third similar attempt that had been made against the gamblers in a month.

NEGROES MAY USE MR.

The Verdict of the Superior Court in Delaware.

Wilmington, Del., July 25.—Judge Spruance of the superior court Thursday overruled the decision made by Judge Edwin R. Cochran in the municipal court a few days ago that negroes should not be allowed to in his court with the prefix "Mr.", "Mrs.", or "Miss" to their names. For persistence in doing this, after being warned, Judge Cochran imposed a fine of $5 on Christopher Brooks, colored, a witness in the court. In default of the fine, Brooks was committed to the workhouse. In his opinion, Judge Spruance held that Judge Cochran had no more negroes to make such a ruling applicable to negroes in his court than he would have to make it applicable to foreigners. He ordered Brooks discharged from custody.

FARMING BY MERE PUSH OF A BUTTON

Tom Lee Pioneer in Making Use of Electricity in Raising Crops.
New York, July 25.—Thomas W. Lee, until about two years ago general passenger agent of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, with headquarters in New York, is the first man in the world to farm by electricity. Mr. Lee owns the Bungalow, a tract of more than 3000 acres in the vicinity of Idaho Falls. All that Tom Lee has to do now when he wishes to farm is to push a button. Electricity does the rest. The ground in the Bungalow was broken for cultivation two years ago. The first season it returned a profit on grain. It is fenced, has fine buildings, machinery and stock, and is managed by a man to whom system is as necessary as breath.

One year ago Mr. Lee utilized steam, but that proved too slow and too expensive. This year the grain of the Bungalow will be reaped, stacked, threshed, sacked and made ready for market by electricity. The haying is also being done by electricity. The Bungalow is wired from corner to corner. Miles of poles and cables, motors, revolving drum and the most up to date farming machinery that can buy constitute the equipment.

WOMAN FIGHTING

FOURTEENTH HUSBAND SUING HER, CHARGING INSUPPORTABLE CRUELTY.

Omaha, July 25.—Mrs. Phoebe Townsend of Dodge, Neb., is being sued for divorce by her 14th husband, Anthony Townsend, to whom she was married last January.

Mr. Townsend, who is an old, well known and wealthy farmer of Dodge, secured his wife through the advertising columns of a newspaper. For seven months they lived together. Then the husband left his home, declaring that his wife had treated him with insupportable cruelty, and he filed a suit for divorce.

Mrs. Townsend is 52 years old. She has been a wife, mother and widow at 15. Of her 14 husbands, nine are living. Mrs. Townsend confesses it is difficult to recall the names of some of her husbands, and that she lived with some of them so short a time that she could not recognize them in the street. She was living at Council Bluffs, when she married her present husband, and she has several sons and daughters in that city. A number of her divorced husbands also live there.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpelide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water? If you did what would you say of him? It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of dandruff and prevent baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Castor Oil, Yaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newell's Herpelide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots. It is the original and only genuine hair germicide manufactured. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich.
